Mr. Taher Punjwani awarded FTI Fellowship of
The Textile Institute of Manchester – another feather in his cap!

In the Ceremony held in Manchester on 23rd May 2019, Mr. M. Taher Punjwani, our past chairman, was awarded Fellowship by prestigious “The Textile Institute of Manchester”. This award is the highest level Professional Qualification by the Institute. In this time of specialization, a few have accomplished recognition in different fields of Textiles. He is the singular honour of being a Textile Technologist, Textile Engineer and Textile manufacturer. He excelled in his endeavours and undertakings therefore at one time knew him in the USA as “Mr. Textiles”, in the Far East “Icon of Textiles” and in Pakistan “a father of Pakistan Knitwear.

This fellowship is awarded to those who make a major personal creative contribution to Textile Sciences and Textile Industry – it is not awarded automatically even to a person with PhD degree. It is therefore also an honourable award.
